Service Accueil international / ISSO - International Students and Scholars Office, Communauté Université Grenoble Alpes

The International Students and Scholars Office has as its main aim facilitating the arrival in Grenoble - and then helping with the settling' in process - of international students, doctoral students and researchers.

The international welcome team is there to help you throughout the university year, particularly with the following:

Accompanying you and giving advice on finding suitable accommodation

Helping you in the steps to take in obtaining and validating your visa and residence permit

Giving you tips about practical matters in Grenoble: health and banking facilities and getting around

ISSO is a member of the EURAXESS network of service centres, set up by the European Commission. Researchers and PhD students can thus benefit from personalised help with their settling in process.
