PREPARING FOR YOUR STAY AND GETTING SETTLED

Practical guide for international students

2021-2022
UNIVERSITÉ GRENOBLE ALPES (UGA)

Thoroughly rooted in its local area, multi-disciplinary and international, UGA’s scope has changed in 2020.

It now brings together Grenoble INP, Sciences Po Grenoble, the Grenoble School of Architecture, and units of the former Université Grenoble Alpes, including the Institut National Supérieur du Professeurat et de l’Éducation de l’Académie de Grenoble (INSPE), and includes the services of the Comue UGA. 60,000 students, including 9,000 international students and over 3,000 PhD students and 7,500 staff are spread across the various campuses, primarily in the agglomerations of Grenoble and Valence.

The national research bodies CEA, CNRS, INRIA and INSERM will now work even more with Université Grenoble Alpes to develop a common policy for research and development on an international scale. Relations with the INRAE, IRD and the CHU Grenoble Alpes university hospital have also been strengthened by the creation of this new university.

Université Grenoble Alpes has been awarded the «Bienvenue en France 2 étoiles» label. Issued by Campus France for a period of 4 years (2020-2024), this label distinguishes French higher education institutions that undertake initiatives to better welcome their international students.

This guide is designed specifically for international students. Its main objective is to provide an overview of all the steps you will go through from the moment you are admitted to the first days of your stay. More detailed information about the topics covered in the guide can be found on the web portal dedicated to international students.

STEP 1
YOU HAVE BEEN ADMITTED
COMPLETING YOUR ADMISSION AT UNIVERSITY

As soon as you receive confirmation of your admission, check with your institution when the academic year starts, and the necessary steps to follow before your arrival.

GOOD TO KNOW
If possible, avoid booking flights or trains that arrive on Sundays, public holidays or after 7 pm, as most shops will be closed and there will be less public transportation.

PLANNING YOUR BUDGET

Before leaving, it is essential to estimate your budget in order to anticipate for the main expenses to come during your stay in France, as well as the expenses related to your arrival and settling in.

MONTHLY EXPENSES

Accommodation is the main expense for a student and can account for up to 50% of the monthly budget. Expect to spend between €210 and €800 per month depending on the type of accommodation, plus the charges (water, electricity and gas, €30 to €60). Food ranks second: you will spend about €250 per month. Then comes leisure, transportation, telephone and internet subscriptions, without forgetting the health care costs, which, even if they are well reimbursed in France, still represent a cost.

EXPENSES UPON ARRIVAL

Beware, there are lots of expenses upon arrival, and it is possible that you will spend more than €1000: university registration fees, the first month rent, a deposit for accommodation, subscriptions for water, electricity, telephone and the internet, insurances, etc...

GOOD TO KNOW

University registration fees
Registration fees in France remain low compared to many western countries. They vary depending on your level of studies and the school, department or faculty you enroll in.

Although higher ‘differentiated registration fees’ apply for non-European students, numerous situations allow exemptions.

FINANCING YOUR STAY

Scholarships
Many scholarships are available to help you finance your stay. However, generally you need to apply several months in advance or even a year before registration.
> https://international.univ-grenoble-alpes.fr/getting-organized/
Section Budget > Financial assistance

Work
To finance your studies, you can also work part-time, up to a maximum of 964 hours per year, i.e. 60% of the legal number of hours counting as full-time work in France (apart from exceptions associated to certain types of visa).
> https://international.univ-grenoble-alpes.fr/getting-organized/
Section Budget > Student Jobs

GOOD TO KNOW

International students can benefit from a financial aid for their rent, from the French state, and paid by the CAF (Caisse d’Allocations Familiales). Beware, this aid is subject to conditions, and its amount partly depends on your financial resources.

SEARCHING FOR ACCOMMODATION

Students can mainly choose between living in student residences (public or private) and the private rental sector.

Finding an accommodation in the region can be challenging, especially in Grenoble, but there are many possibilities. We recommend you start your search at least two months prior to your arrival in France.

PUBLIC STUDENT RESIDENCES (CROUS)

This is by far the cheapest type of accommodation, but the number of places is limited. Note that priority is given to French scholarship holders, and that applying to CROUS does not guarantee you a room!

How to apply to CROUS for accommodation

If you come in the context of an exchange program in Grenoble

The International Students & Scholars Office (ISSO) centralizes all the application forms and acts as an intermediary between the student and CROUS or private residences. You will be automatically provided with a link for your online application before the end of June.

If you come in the context of an exchange program in Valence

Contact the International relations office correspondent of your faculty or school, who will provide you with information on different accommodation options.

If you apply on an individual basis

International students can start applying for CROUS accommodation in July, depending on the number of rooms left available. You will need to create an account «MesServices» to access the CROUS booking request platform.

> https://www.messervices.etudiant.gouv.fr/
> https://trouverunlogement.lescrous.fr/

If you received a scholarship from the French government managed by Campus France

Contact directly your local Campus France office, which will examine your application in connection with the CROUS accommodation service.

OBTAINING A VISA

Except for nationals from the European Economic Area, Monaco, Andorra and Switzerland, it is necessary to get a visa to enter and study in metropolitan France.

TO FIND OUT WHETHER YOU NEED A VISA

> https://france-visas.gouv.fr

APPLYING FOR A STUDENT VISA

If your country is affected by the “Studying in France” procedure (“Études en France” - CEF), you will get all necessary information about your visa application on the Campus France website:

If your country is not affected by the “Studying in France” procedure (“Études en France”- CEF), you will have to consult the French embassy in your country of residence to follow the application procedure for a student visa. The duration of the procedure varies depending on the country and the application period, but it generally takes several weeks. Therefore, it is necessary to apply well in advance.

SEARCHING FOR ACCOMMODATION

Via the national web portal for student housing ‘LoKaviZ’: this website references rental offers in the private sector for apartments, shared apartments and rooms. You need to create an account to get contact information. www.lokaviz.fr

Via real estate agencies: they offer a wide choice of accommodation and serve as an intermediary between property owners and tenants throughout the rental period. However, you will need to pay for their service (agency fees). In Grenoble, these agency fees can reach a maximum of €10/m², to which €3/m² will be added as entry inventory fees.

Via private owners: some owners directly manage their property rental. In this case, there are no agency fees, but beware, this solution does not offer the same guarantees or structure as a real estate agency. You can easily find offers on general or specialized classified ads websites.

GOOD TO KNOW

Temporary accommodations booked online with private owners do not allow to get a proof of address in France, document which is required to open a bank account in France.

FINDING A GUARANTOR

French law protects tenants from evictions. That is why almost all owners require tenants to have a guarantor for rent payment.

A guarantor is a person, a fiscal resident in France, who agrees to pay your rent in your stead if you can no longer ensure the payment. For international students who may have difficulties in finding a guarantor in France, other solutions exist, namely the ”Visale” procedure, which is also accepted by CROUS.

LEARNING ABOUT HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE

In France, it is compulsory for every international student to have health insurance. Whatever your situation, you will find here useful information to anticipate the different steps to take, and thus be covered straight from your arrival and throughout your period of study.

HEALTH INSURANCE (“SÉCURITÉ SOCIALE”)

You are from Europe (EU/EEA) or Switzerland: prior to your arrival, you have to get a European Health Insurance Card from the health insurance provider of your country of origin. It must be valid for the whole duration of your stay in France.

You come from Quebec: you have to get a certificate issued by the “Régie d’Assurance Maladie du Québec” (RAMQ) before you come to France.

www.ramq.gouv.qc.ca
Section Citoyens > Absence du Quebec

You are from the Principality of Monaco: prior to your arrival, you must apply to your Monegasque social security office for a certificate confirming that you are registered with and covered by the Monegasque health insurance system.

You are from the Principality of Andorra: prior to your arrival, you must obtain an SE 130-04 form from your Andorran social security office in order to be covered throughout your period of study.

For all other nationalities: Prior to your arrival in France, you must take out a travel insurance or private health insurance in order to be covered during the first weeks of your stay, and until you are able to register with the French state health insurance. You will have to register with the French state health insurance once arrived in France, and right after your administrative enrollment at university. A birth certificate will be requested, so remember to bring one.

IMPORTANT
Health insurance, commonly known as "Sécurité sociale", covers only part of the healthcare costs.

To cover the remaining healthcare costs that are uncovered by social security, we highly recommend you take an additional health insurance, known as “complémentaire santé” or “mutuelle”.

REPATRIATION INSURANCE
We also advise you to take out repatriation insurance for the duration of your stay, before your arrival in France, in order to cover for repatriation expenses in the event of serious illness or death. Some bankcards include a repatriation insurance, check with your bank before leaving.

GOOD TO KNOW
There are two other mandatory insurances to be taken out upon arrival in France: the housing insurance, and the civil liability insurance. For more information, see the section «You have just arrived» in this guide.

PREPARING YOUR ARRIVAL: CHECKLIST AND TIPS

ESSENTIALS

For all students:
- ID card (European nationals) or passport.
- Health record and vaccination certificates (if available).
- Original of your birth certificate with filiation, along with its French translation (see «Good to know» note below.).
- Letter of acceptance from the French educational institution (original if available).
- Driver’s license if you want to use a car in France.
- Socket adapter (the plugs in France are type C or E/F).

For European (EU, EEE) and Swiss nationals:
- European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) valid for the whole duration of your stay in France.

For Nationals of Quebec, Monaco or Andorra:
- The form or certificate from your national health insurance or social security office guaranteeing your health coverage throughout your period of study in France.

GOOD TO KNOW

Every document written in a language other than French (birth certificate, driver’s licence, etc.) must be translated by a translator sworn by the French courts. If you want to translate these documents before leaving, we recommend asking the French embassy or consulate in your country, in order to have the translations legalized or apostilled.

TIPS

- If you do not have a European Health Insurance Card, or forms from the RAMQ, or from your Monegasque or Andorran social security office, remember to get a private health insurance contract in order to be covered during the first weeks of your stay in France.
- Scan all your important documents and send them to your mailbox. Also take two or three photocopies of these documents with you, you will quickly need them upon arrival.
- If you travel by plane, keep all the documents from the checklist with you: they can be claimed upon arrival by the border control services.
- Write down the essential information in case you do not have internet access upon arrival: accommodation’s address, reception telephone number (for student residences), directions between the station and your accommodation with bus and tram numbers, contact at your institution, etc.
- If your country uses a currency other than the Euro, consider changing money for your first payments. Before leaving, check the terms of overseas money withdrawal with your card, since the opening of a bank account in France can take one or two weeks (see the section “Opening a bank account” in this guide).
- Some UGA academic divisions (faculty or school) offer their exchange students opportunities to be put into contact with a student volunteer already living in Grenoble (a buddy), who can help them settle. Contact the International Relations office of your host institution to find out if this applies to you. You can also contact student associations for international students, which also offer student mentoring programs. (See the section «Associations for international students» in this guide).
STEP 3
YOU HAVE JUST ARRIVED
GETTING INTERNET ACCESS

Lots of wifi spots are available for you to use upon your arrival:

• In airports, cafes, but also in different places in the town centre.
• In university restaurants and students residences.
• On enrollment at the university, you will get your logins and passwords to access the wifi campus network.

On Grenoble campus, computers are available with free access to the internet at the iCampus – Welcome center.

In Valence, free access computers are available in public libraries.

All mobile tariffs in France include, on top of calls, an (almost) unlimited Internet access. You can get monthly subscriptions, or buy pre-paid cards.

GOOD TO KNOW

Remember to check the roaming charges from your provider in your country if you wish to access the internet with your mobile phone upon your arrival in France.

GOOD TO KNOW

The UGA is mobilizing to help students in situation of digital precariousness. If you do not have a computer on arrival in France, and have a limited budget, please contact your faculty or school, which could offer you a computer on loan, depending on availability.

FINDING ACCOMMODATION

FINDING ACCOMMODATION ONCE YOU HAVE ARRIVED
Finding accommodation requires engagement and time: regularly consult internet and real estate agency listings, and do not hesitate to seek advice from other students. When visiting accommodation, do not forget to bring several copies of your complete file: this will allow you to get in first if you find the place of your dreams!

Check the section “Searching for accommodation” in this guide for more detailed information on searching for accommodation in the private rental sector.

WHEN ENTERING YOUR ACCOMMODATION

Signing the rental agreement (« bail »)
Before you can enter your accommodation, the owner and yourself must sign a rental agreement, called the ‘bail’. This agreement is drawn up in two copies and defines the rental conditions, stating the amount of the rent, the surface area of the accommodation, the duration of the agreement, etc. When signing the agreement, you will have to pay various entry fees, such as:

- the security deposit
- the agency fees (if you rented through a real estate agency), and the inventory fees
- the first month’s rent

Entry Inventory (“État des lieux d’entrée”)
An entry inventory is a procedure whereby the owner and the tenant review the state of the apartment and record any defects or damage in a written report. It must be carried out systematically before renting, and your presence is mandatory. It also defines the responsibilities of each party in case of litigation. At the end of the stay, it will be compared to the exit inventory. This step generally occurs before the keys are handed over, but can be performed the same day. If the inventory is carried out by a professional, you will be charged partly.

GOOD TO KNOW
During the inventory, pay close attention to any defects or damage in the accommodation and do not forget to read the entry inventory report before you sign it. A copy of the inventory must be given to you. If you want to modify or add to the inventory, you must send a registered letter with proof of delivery (“recommandé avec accusé de réception”) detailing the modifications you want to make, within 10 days after moving in.

Insuring your accommodation
All rented accommodation must be insured by the tenant for rental risks: fire, water damages, or explosions. However, this insurance does not necessarily cover possessions you have in your home, for example in case of burglary.

Get information from banks, student insurance providers and other insurance companies which all offer rental liability and multi-risk insurance contracts. This insurance certificate will be asked for by the owner, or the agency.

Concluding contracts for water, electricity, gas, internet and a landline
If water, electricity and gas are not included in the rental charges (in student residences, they are usually included), you have to take out contracts with providers of your choosing, even if you already have access to water, electricity and gas when you move in. Starting a new contract is charged around 25€.
OPENING A BANK ACCOUNT

The opening of a French bank account is not mandatory, but almost essential. A bank account in France will allow the payment of possible wages, and facilitate the payment of bills or subscriptions, allowances or reimbursement of medical expenses. You will need to provide a proof of address in France to open a bank account. Note that temporary accommodations do not always make it possible to get such a document.

Steps to follow to open a bank account:
- Choose a bank: check if your bank in your home country has a partnership with a French bank, or if your institution has concluded a privileged partnership.
- Make an appointment with a bank advisor.
- Prepare your file with the requested documents, which usually are:
  - proof of identity (ID card, or passport)
  - proof of address with your name on it (rental agreement or ‘bail’, certificate of university students residence, rent receipt, electricity bill, etc.)
  - Student card (optional, in case of special offers)

GOOD TO KNOW
Opening an account is usually free of charge, but some services may have to be paid for (credit card, money transfers, overdraft facilities, etc.). Get as much information as possible and do not hesitate to compare several bank offers!

OBTAINING A CVEC ATTESTATION

Except if you come through an exchange program (Erasmus for example), you will need a CVEC attestation before being able to complete your university enrollment. The Student and Campus Life Contribution (CVEC) finances students’ services: health, sports, culture and student initiatives. But beware, the CVEC is not an insurance!

TAKING OUT CIVIL LIABILITY INSURANCE

There are three mandatory insurances in France: health insurance, rental liability insurance, and civil liability insurance. The civil liability insurance (‘assurance responsabilité civile vie privée’), covers any damage you may involuntarily cause to others. It is also required to complete your administrative registration at university.

GOOD TO KNOW
If you have already taken out a «multirisque habitation» insurance, it usually contains the civil liability insurance: check with your insurance provider!

COMPLETING YOUR ENROLLMENT AT UNIVERSITY

After your arrival in France, you must finalize your administrative registration, and then complete your academic enrollment. The administrative registration is to be completed at the ‘service de scolarité’ of your host institution. You will be told beforehand how to proceed. This is when you will pay for the registration fees, and you will get your student card as well as your login details to access the wifi campus network. The academic enrollment (choice of courses, options, etc…) will come after, and take place in your particular Faculty (UFR : ‘Unité de Formation et de Recherche’).
REGISTERING FOR HEALTH INSURANCE

HEALTH INSURANCE («SÉCURITÉ SOCIALE»): COMPULSORY

You are from Europe (EU/EEA) or Switzerland: you must have a European Health Insurance Card, valid for the whole duration of your stay. If not, register with the French state health insurance, via the CPAM website dedicated to new international students: > https://etudiant-etranger.ameli.fr/#/.

You come from Quebec: you must have a certificate issued by the RAMQ, covering you during the whole duration of your study stay in France. If not, contact the RAMQ.

You are from the Principality of Monaco: you must have your Monegasque certificate. If not, contact your Monegasque social security office.

You are from the Principality of Andorra: you must have an SE 130-04 form from your Andorran social security office. If not, register with the French state health insurance via the CPAM website dedicated to new international students: https://etudiant-etranger.ameli.fr/#/.

For all other nationalities: right after completing your administrative enrollment at university, you have to register with the French social security, via their website dedicated to new international students: > https://etudiant-etranger.ameli.fr/#/.

This registration is free of charge. Only three documents are necessary to start registering: your passport, your visa, and a proof of registration at university (the ‘certificat de scolarité’).

ADVICE

Always keep a health insurance certificate with you, in case you go to a doctor, or in the event of an accident.

ADDITIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE («COMPLÉMENTAIRE SANTÉ» OR «MUTUELLE»): OPTIONAL

The health insurance «sécurité sociale» covers only part of the medical expenses. To be better reimbursed, we highly recommend you take out an additional health insurance, known as « complémentaire santé » or « mutuelle ». Many insurance providers have special offers for students. Take your time to compare the different offers according to your needs.

If you are registered with the French state health insurance, and have a limited budget, you can apply for the ‘Complémentaire Santé Solidaire’ at the local CPAM.

HEALTH CENTERS FOR STUDENTS

In Grenoble, all students enrolled in one of the Université Grenoble Alpes institutions can visit general practitioners, and some specialists, for free, at the Students Health Centers. Their team provide information, consultations, and preventive actions throughout the academic year.

In Valence, the Youth Health Centre is also available for students for free, providing consultations and preventive actions.

APPLYING FOR HOUSING ALLOWANCE

If you stay in France longer than three months, and need financial help to pay for your rent, you can apply for a housing allowance to the CAF (Caisse d’Allocations Familiales).

The award and the amount of the housing allowance are based on several criteria: financial resources, family situation, amount of the rent, type of accommodation.

Applications are to be made online, on the CAF website. Make sure you have your rental agreement and French bank account number with you: you will need them to complete the online application.

If your application is accepted, a monthly allowance will be granted only from the 2nd month following the application.

IMPORTANT
Students with a visa marked “dispense temporaire de carte de séjour”, cannot benefit from housing allowances.

The CAF website also has practical documents in several languages to guide you through the application procedure:

VALIDATING YOUR VISA OR APPLYING FOR A RESIDENCE PERMIT

The procedure to follow depends on the type of your visa:

If your visa bears the mention «dispense temporaire de carte de séjour», or if you have a visa “mineur scolarisé” and that you still are under 18 years old upon arrival: you have nothing to do.

If your visa bears the mention «C.SEU A SOLLIC.», or if you have a visa type C «étudiant-concours»: you have to apply for a first residence permit, upon your arrival, at the Prefecture office of your place of residence.

If your visa bears the mention «étudiant»: You have to validate your visa online. Within the first 3 months upon your arrival in France, as soon as you have a fixed address, go to the ‘Direction Générale des Étrangers en France’ website:
> https://administration-etrangers-en-france.interieur.gouv.fr/particuliers/#/

Once you have completed the procedure, and paid for the resident permit tax, you will receive a confirmation by email. Keep this document for the whole duration of your stay, and particularly if you are traveling.

In Grenoble: IntEGre association

IntEGre is a dynamic association of Grenoble students whose aim is to welcome international students within the Université Grenoble Alpes, and thereby facilitate cultural exchanges through a variety of activities, outings, special welcome evenings, and discoveries of local and national heritage. The association organizes in particular at the beginning of each semester visits round the campus and the city of Grenoble, as well as ‘discovery’ weekends. IntEGre also offers a program of student-mentors: as soon as you become a member of IntEGre, you can be put into contact with a student volunteer who is already in Grenoble. This person will facilitate your integration.
