STUDY ABROAD REPRESENTATIVE STAR

MISSIONS

The STAR program (Study Abroad Representatives) gives you the opportunity to get the most of your experience as an international exchange student.

STAR students contribute to promoting UGA internationally and at their home university. They also act as advocates for their own culture and school.

ACTIVITIES

Activities concern the promotion of UGA abroad and the outreach of your home culture at your home university and UGA.

Activities include:

- Providing lively and original testimonials about your stay as an exchange student at UGA: articles, videos, podcasts, photos, etc. that will be shared on social media.
- Advising UGA students who consider doing an exchange with your home country.
- Participating in UGA's international events.
- Promote UGA abroad, especially in your home university, during your stay in Grenoble and once you are back.

PROFILE

We are looking for curious, open-minded and highly motivated and dynamic international students.

The following skills are particularly appreciated:

- Fluency in English and French.
- Wish to learn about other cultures and to share your own.
- Interest in written and audiovisual testimonials / stories / posts on social networks.
- Willingness to share your personal cultural experience.
- Desire to actively participate in events and be a source of information to fellow students.
- Understanding of issues and responsibilities associated with representing an institution.

Grenoble Alpes

ADVANTAGES

The Promotion & Internationalisation team (Pôle P&I) will support you with:

- Helping you to define the most relevant issues and messages you want to share.
- Offering you training on social network communication.
- Giving you the basics for good photography and video taking, as well as for graphic design.

At the end of your STAR time, you will receive:

- A STAR certification, stating the actions you took part in and the competencies you acquired.
- A Open Badge certification for your student community engagement, that can be used on your CV and on professional platforms such as LinkedIn.

And all year long:

- Meeting fellow students, making new friends.
- Creating your professional network at UGA.
- Goodies.
- Sharing your creations with thousands of followers on UGA's social media channels.
